Cordillera Ranch's 16th Judged Most Beautifully Brutal Golf Hole™

JOHNSTON, Iowa – November 25, 2008 – The 172-yard, par 3, sixteenth hole at Cordillera Ranch Golf Club, Boerne, Texas, has been selected as a winner of the John Deere Credit search for the 18 Most Beautifully Brutal Golf Holes™ in North America.

The Cordillera Ranch hole was chosen from entries throughout the U.S. and Canada (excluding Quebec) by a panel of judges that includes Jeff Babineau, editor of Golfweek; Pat Roberts, publisher of Golfdom; Joe Passov, architecture editor for Golf magazine; and Gary Van Sickle, golf editor for Sports Illustrated. The judges rated each entry on the basis of the hole's beauty as well as its difficulty.

Though not terribly long, the Cordillera Ranch hole is visually intimidating. Its 18-20 paces deep green is perched atop a rock canyon with several waterfalls around the green. Shots hit short or right are lost to the canyon. Long shots end up in tall native grass or a bunker.

"This striking hole works on every level, both aesthetically and playing value," says Passov. "I'd love to play this one."

"The sixteenth hole at Cordillera Ranch offers an outstanding example of how dedicated course owners, builders, architects and superintendents create and maintain holes that golfers talk about the entire year," says Steve Knutson, Director of golf leasing for John Deere Credit.

"John Deere Credit is proud to recognize these efforts and to provide golf courses throughout North America with equipment and lease products that help them keep courses beautiful and brutal," Knutson adds.

Austin Turf and Tractor, with locations in Marble Falls and Farmers Branch, and Brookside Equipment Sales with locations in Jersey Village, Spring and Houston, Texas, are the John Deere Golf equipment distributors that serve the needs of beautifully brutal golf courses in Texas.
