Consent to the processing of personal data pursuant to Art. 6 sec. 1 lit. a, Article 7 GDPR

I hereby agree that,

John Deere Walldorf GmbH & Co. KG, Impexstraße 3, 69190 Walldorf in Germany ("John Deere") collects and processes my personal data (company name, dealer account number, name and surname of the registrant, user ID/XID, E-Mail address, phone number or mobile number, position or job title for the purpose of executing the event and in order to grant you access to the virtual event page and the sessions. In case of a virtual event with the possibility of networking you may be asked during the registration process if you want to enable your profile public. This functionality enables networking with other attendees within the event. In case you agree your profile can be viewed by any attendee without being connected. The prepopulated information shown will be name & email address. In addition, you can edit your profile and add a picture. You have the possibility to choose if your profile is visible or hidden for all during the onboarding process and as well in your profile.

- John Deere keeps my personal data for these purposes for the duration of the event according to retention policy.
- John Deere will also share my personal data with independent third-party company that John Deere engaged for these purposes.
- John Deere will also share or disclose my personal data with its Affiliates for the purposes set out in the long-form privacy statement. (www.deere.com/privacy)
- John Deere also transfers my personal data to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA), such as the United States of America, which have different, and less protective data protection laws. But, where the latter is the case, John Deere relies on admissible data transfer mechanisms, such as Standard Contractual Clauses or Binding Corporate Rules, if any.

I am aware that,

- my consent to the processing of my personal data is voluntary and that I can refuse it.
- I can withdraw my consent at any time by sending an E-Mail to region2events@JohnDeere.com. However, the withdrawal of my consent does not affect the legality of the processing of my personal data, which took place until the withdrawal on the basis of the consent.
- within the framework of legal regulations, I have the right to obtain information about the processing of my personal data, to have it rectify or erase, to restrict the processing or to have my personal data transferred to another data controller at my request.
- I receive further information about the processing of my personal data for the purposes listed in the long-form privacy statement at www.deere.com/privacy.
